The Department of Theater is an accredited institutional member of the National Association of Schools of Theatre, 11250 Roger Bacon Drive, Suite 21, Reston, Virginia 20190.

The Department of Theater blends scholarship and practice in an academically based theater experience that provides students with broad based exposure to human experience and a sound foundation in the skills of theater craft. The course of study in history, theory and criticism in all areas of theater is complimented by a production program that reinforces both approaches to theater, creating work that is as imaginative and highly polished as possible. Graduates will be able to apply their knowledge of performance, production, theater history, contemporary practice, literature and theory in a wide variety of theater venues. Graduates will also be able to demonstrate intrapersonal and interpersonal skills in the form of leadership qualities, self discipline, creative expression, critical thinking, and the ability to work effectively as a part of a collaborative team. The development and guidance of talent and discipline, both characteristic of the artist/scholar, are the goals of the Department of Theater.

The Department of Theater maintains two theaters for public productions: the McLeod Theater, a proscenium stage seating approximately 500, and the Christian H. Moe Laboratory Theater, a flexible stage seating up to 110. The playbill typically encompasses a balance of contemporary, classic, and original works, and offers seven productions including a musical and an opera during the academic year (the latter co-produced with the School of Music). The summer season, McLeod Summer Playhouse, consists of two musicals and a comedy operating as a professional summer stock company, offering stipends, and/or graduate credit.

The Department of Theater offers a graduate program of study leading to a Master of Fine Arts degree in theater. An interdisciplinary doctoral study in theater is sponsored by the Department of Speech Communication. Interested students should consult the description of the program under speech communication.

Admissions

To apply students must fill out two separate applications. The first is the online application to the Admissions to Graduate Study in Theater which is available at http://www.siu.edu/gradschl/. Applicants for graduate studies in theater must satisfy the minimum requirements of the Graduate School before being admitted to the department. The second application is directly to the Department of Theater, which requires the submission of a departmental application form, statement of purpose, transcripts from all undergraduate and graduate course work together with three (3) letters of recommendation from former teachers or supervisors. All forms should be requested from the director of graduate studies in theater.

This program requires a nonrefundable $50.00 application fee that must be submitted with the application for Admissions to Graduate Study in Theater. Applicants may pay this fee by credit card if applying electronically. Applicants submitting a paper application must pay by personal check, cashier's check, or money order made out to SIU, and payable to a U.S. Bank.

Although an undergraduate major in theater is not essential for admission to a graduate degree program in theater, the director of graduate studies may require that certain course deficiencies in undergraduate subject areas be remedied. These requirements are stated in writing on the admissions approval form.

There are additional requirements established by each of the three areas of study in the M.F.A. program. Applicants in the directing area are required to submit materials that are representative of their previous theater work and/or indicate an aptitude for stage direction (examples would include promptbooks, programs, reviews, photos, video tapes or casebooks from previous directing efforts. Alternatively, a detailed production plan for a play selected by the head of directing may be required). Directing students are also required to attend an on-campus interview and audition. At this time, each applicant will work with actors on a directing scene to demonstrate their ability to analyze the scene and work with actors. Applicants in the production design/technical areas are required to submit portfolio samples of their work. Applicants in the playwriting area must submit approximately 2 to 2 1/2 hours of written material consisting of one full-length plan and/or several significant short pieces. Please refer to the description of the program in Speech Communications for admission information to the Ph.D. program. Please note that the Department of Theater requires the submission of GRE scores as part of its admission requirement for the Ph.D. More detailed information about these requirements is obtainable from: Director of Graduate Studies, Department of Theater, Southern Illinois University Carbondale, Carbondale, IL 62901-6608, 618-453-5741.

Financial Assistance
There are several kinds of financial assistance available to graduate students in the Department of Theater. First, there are graduate fellowships awarded on the basis of superior scholarship. Second, special fellowships are offered annually to students who show promise of success in graduate studies although their academic records have been only average due to economic disadvantages. The fellowships have no service requirements. Third, graduate assistantships with competitive stipends are available to students who are employed in various academic support positions, such as teaching, researching, and production. All fellowships and assistantships include a waiver of tuition (both in-state and out-of-state). Applications for financial assistance may be obtained by writing to the director of graduate studies.

The Master of Fine Arts Degree Program
The Master of Fine Arts degree program in theater emphasizes practical expertise in one of the following areas: directing, playwriting and production design (separate emphases in scenic, lighting, costume design, and technical direction), a The department encourages interdisciplinary study in related fields including performance studies, dramatic literature, musical theatre and opera. In most instances, a minimum three-year residency is required of all M.F.A. students.

All M.F.A. students must complete a minimum of 60 semester hours of course work, including the M.F.A. degree core requirements:
THEA 500, 501  6 hours
THEA 520A, 520B  6 hours
Total M.F.A. core  12 hours

Besides the core requirements, the student will propose and successfully complete a project to qualify for further study in the chosen area. This project will be developed in concert with the student’s committee consisting of three faculty members.

In addition, each of the three areas of study has specific area and elective requirements which are as follows.

Thesis requirements vary for each area of study; however, they include a research component as well as a description and evaluation of the student's creative project. In concert with the student's committee, the candidate may choose to separate the two, submitting an approved research paper during the first academic year and a creative thesis after completion of the M.F.A. final project.

The Department of Theater requires an oral examination, conducted by the student's thesis or dissertation committee, for each M.F.A. and Ph.D. degree candidate. The examination covers the thesis or dissertation, and may include questions designed to ascertain the student's general competence in theater.

Courses (THEA)
