The Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures offers a graduate program leading to the Master of Arts degree in foreign languages and literatures. The M.A. program with classes in literature, linguistics and pedagogy allows for considerable breadth of study while offering a well-balanced degree plan. Students may choose to complete their degree with a concentration in either French or Spanish.

Admission

A non-refundable application fee of $50.00 must be submitted with the application. Attach your check or money order, payable to Southern Illinois University, to the top of the application form. Do not send cash. Only checks or money orders drawn on United States banks will be accepted. This fee will be waived for students applying from outside of the United States or currently enrolled at SIUC.

In addition to meeting requirements of the Graduate School, the applicant for admission to the programs in the Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures should have a Bachelor's degree with a major in either French or Spanish. Students with other majors who have a knowledge of either French or Spanish and at least 18 semester hours (27 quarter hours) of relevant courses on the junior-senior level may be admitted. If accepted, students not meeting minimum requirements in course work or in language proficiency will need to take additional course work to make up the deficiency before receiving a Teaching Assistantship. These courses will not count towards fulfilling the degree requirements. Students who meet requirements for admission to the Graduate School but do not meet departmental requirements may register as unclassified students for specific graduate courses in the department only with consent of the instructor and authorization from the head of their language section.

General Requirements

All students are required to take the following classes:

- FL 437
- FL 436
- FR/SPAN 501
- FR/SPAN 570
- 3 classes of literature

Students concentrating in Spanish must take SPAN 414 and either SPAN 511 or SPAN 512.

In addition, students choosing Plan I with a Research Paper will also take:
A 500 level course in literature, linguistics, pedagogy, or instructional technology
FL 506 (for French students) or FL 509 (for Spanish students)

Students choosing Plan I with a Thesis will also take:
FR/SPAN 599

Students choosing Plan II will also take:
A 500 level course in literature, linguistics, pedagogy, or instructional technology

Comprehensive Examinations
Three hours of Independent Study will be given only under exceptional circumstances and will not duplicate courses which are available. The Director of Graduate Studies is responsible for authorizing such work in cooperation with the individual professor.

M.A. Options
Plan I (Research Option): Either a total of 30 hours of course work plus 1 to 3 hours of credit for a research paper, or a total of 27 hours of course work plus 3 to 6 hours of credit for thesis.
Plan II (Non Research Option): A total of 30 hours of course work, plus Comprehensive Examinations.

Double Majors
Students may pursue a double major in Foreign Languages together with an MA in another program. Consult "Double Major for a Master’s Degree" in the Degree Requirements section of this catalog for Graduate School requirements for double majors. In addition to meeting Graduate School requirements, double majors must complete 18 credit hours of course work in Foreign Languages, and either:

- Complete a research paper, earning 1-3 credit hours of FL 506 (French) or FL 509 (Spanish)
- Complete a thesis earning 3 to 6 credit hours of FR/SPAN 599
- Pass comprehensive exams based on the courses the student has taken, and complete one additional 500 level course in literature, linguistics, pedagogy, or instructional technology

Curriculum Planning
Prior to registering, each graduate student is required to plan his/her curriculum with the Department’s Director of Graduate Studies. The Director of Graduate Studies will advise the student in all matters pertaining to his/her M.A. Program. Before the end of the second semester of study, the student will decide upon either a Research Option (Plan I) or Non Research Option (Plan II) Program. The student choosing the Non Research Program will take his/her comprehensive examinations at the end of the third semester of study.

The following course of studies is strongly suggested:

First Semester:
3 courses

Second Semester:
3 courses

Third Semester:
2 courses
Comprehensive examinations (Plan II)

Fourth semester:
2 courses
Research Paper/Thesis hours (Plan I)

Transfer of Credits and other Requirements Pertaining to Courses
At least 15 hours of course work must be earned in courses at the 500 level or above, and no more than half the credit applied toward fulfillment of the degree requirements may be transferred from other universities. A student has 6 calendar years to complete the degree and must remain registered (FR/SPAN 601 (Continuing Enrollment)) until the degree is completed.

Grades and Grade-point Average
Any graduate student whose grade point average falls below 3.0 will be placed on academic probation. Any graduate student on academic probation whose grade point average remains below 3.0 for two consecutive semesters in which she or he is enrolled, excluding summer sessions, will be permanently suspended from the Graduate School, unless the department and the collegiate dean petition the graduate dean for an exception.

Research Option (Plan I)
A. Thesis
Description
All students choosing the thesis in the Research Option (Plan I) will register in FR/SPAN 599 (1-6), and must have finished the thesis in a form acceptable to the Committee by the 10th week of their fourth semester, in accordance with the Graduate School’s specifications for Theses. The M.A. Thesis is designed to provide the student with the experience and discipline required to research and to write an original, critical study of considerable breadth and scope on the topic chosen.

A thesis represents a substantial piece of original scholarship. While it is difficult to quantify such work, a thesis typically runs about 50 pages and, as the name implies, requires the student to propose a thesis statement on a topic and then to develop proof of this statement based upon a review of secondary literature and the student’s own critical thinking and analysis.

Planning
Students should try to complete the thesis in one semester, typically the 4th semester of their graduate studies. The student will present a written thesis proposal to his/her thesis advisor, preferably at the end of his/her third semester. This proposal must include a definition and description of a suitable topic, a table of contents, a timetable for completion, and a bibliography. After approval from the thesis advisor, the student must turn a copy of the thesis proposal to the Director of Graduate Studies.
COMMITTEE
The thesis advisor must have some expertise in the field chosen by the student for his/her thesis. The thesis advisor and the other two members of the thesis committee must be tenure-track or tenured faculty. Out of the three committee members, one member (excluding the thesis advisor) may come from a different department, providing his/her specialty is related to the topic of the thesis.

DEFENSE
There will be a public defense of the student’s thesis. The student is required to circulate and post relevant information to announce his/her defense. Such information should include at least the title of the thesis, an abstract, a list of the members of the thesis committee, and the location and time of the defense.

B. Research Paper
DESCRIPTION
All students choosing the research paper in the Research Option (Plan I) will register in FL 506 (1-3) for French or FL 509 (1-3) for Spanish, and must select a research paper advisor specializing in the field related to their research paper, in accordance with the Graduate School’s specifications for Research Papers. Normally, this paper will have been developed in one of the student’s courses or seminars. The intent of the Graduate School’s research paper requirement is for the student to demonstrate his/her ability to conduct research on a given topic and to report the findings in a well-thought, critical, and coherent fashion. It serves to fulfill the Graduate School’s research requirement. As such it represents a substantial piece of original work. Although the emphasis is on reporting what others have contributed to a topic through researching secondary sources, it still requires from the student his/her own critical thinking and analysis. Typically, a research paper will run approximately 30 pages.

PLANNING
Students should try to complete the research paper in one semester, typically the 4th semester of their graduate studies. The student will present a written research paper proposal to his/her research paper advisor, preferably at the end of his/her third semester. This proposal must include a definition and description of a suitable topic, a table of contents, a timetable for completion, and a bibliography. After approval from the research paper advisor, the student must turn a copy of the research paper proposal to the director of graduate studies.

COMMITTEE
The research paper advisor must have some expertise in the field chosen by the student for his/her research paper. The research paper advisor must be tenure-track or tenured faculty and must be appointed in the Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures.

DEFENSE
There will not be any public defense of the student’s research paper.

Non Research Option (Plan II)
Comprehensive Examinations
Description
The comprehensive examinations will be written and organized according to the following guidelines:

French
3 hours French/Francophone literature
2 hours French linguistics
2 hours pedagogy

Spanish
4 hours Spanish/Latin American literature
2 hours Spanish linguistics
2 hours pedagogy

Each year a faculty member from the Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures will be appointed by the Chair to be in charge of the preparation, organization, scheduling, etc., of the comprehensive examinations. It is the student’s responsibility to contact this faculty member for all matters pertaining to his/her comprehensive examinations, as early as possible during the 3rd semester of his/her graduate studies. The French comprehensive examinations will be based on the courses taken. However, the Spanish comprehensive examinations will be based on a reading list.

Courses (FL)

436-3 Methods in Teaching World Languages. The course prepares future language teachers with the theoretical knowledge and the practical tools necessary to meet the demands of today's communicative language classroom. Based on insights from second language acquisition research and current trends and standards in the language teaching profession, students develop an informed and principled approach to teaching world languages effectively. Required of prospective language teachers in secondary schools. Prerequisite: concurrent or prior enrollment in 300-level course in French, German, Latin, or Spanish.

437-3 Instructional Technology and Foreign Language Learning. Familiarizes student with basic principles of design, development, utilization and evaluation of computer-based instructional materials for language learning. Introduces students to software authoring packages for multimedia instructional units and develops skills and knowledge for exploring the potential of the Internet as a language-learning and distance-education tool. Prerequisite: concurrent or prior enrollment in 300-level French, German, Latin, Russian or Spanish.

491-1 to 4 Independent Study-ASL/Deaf Studies. Guided individual exploration of some area(s) of significance within the field of American Sign Language or Deafness. Students taking class for graduate credit will do critical study of one aspect. May be repeated as topic varies. Special approval needed from the instructor.

506-1 to 6 (1-3, 1-3) Research Problems—French. Individual research on a literary or linguistic problem involving original investigation in areas not covered by seminars or thesis.

507-1 to 6 (1-3, 1-3) Research Problems—German. Individual research on a literary or linguistic problem involving original investigation in areas not covered by seminars or thesis.

509-1 to 6 (1-3, 1-3) Research Problems—Spanish. Individual research on a literary or linguistic problem involving original investigation in areas not covered by seminars or thesis.

535-3 Critical Theory. Theories of literature and theories underlying literary criticism, taken logically rather than chronologically. Extensive reading, in the original language whenever possible, of both primary statements and exemplificative documents.

556-3 Bibliography and Research Techniques. Introduction to the use of the chief reference works in the humanities and social sciences as they pertain to foreign languages in general. Also, extensive work with bibliography and research methods in French, German, or Spanish.

566-3 Bibliography and Research Techniques. This course provides a comprehensive introduction to the study of pragmatics (i.e. language use in social context) in and across cultures. Students encounter pragmatics at work in the classic linguistic domains on and beyond the sentence level and will be exposed to the pragmatics of a wide range of world languages, including several Englishes, Spanish, French, German, Japanese, Finnish, Persian. Apache, and others. (Taught in English).

592-3 Practicum in Instructional Technology. This course offers a hands-on approach to cover the essentials of technology applications in foreign language instruction and learning. Prerequisite: acceptance to the M.A. program in Foreign Languages and Literatures, or consent of instructor.

Chinese (CHIN)

No graduate program in Chinese is offered through the Eastern Languages and Civilization section. Four-hundred-level courses in this section may be taken for graduate credit unless otherwise indicated in the course description.

410-3 The Linguistic Structure of Chinese. Phonology and syntax of Mandarin Chinese. Principal phonological features of major Chinese dialects. Special emphasis on the contrastive analysis between Mandarin Chinese and English. Theoretical implications of Chinese syntax for current linguistic theories. Prerequisite: one year of Chinese or Linguistics 401.

435-3 Business Chinese. An overview of China’s business through reading in Chinese dealing with the major aspects of China’s foreign trade ranging from broad principles and policies to concrete details of operation and procedure. Enhancement of conversational skills for business contexts. This course satisfies the CoLA Writing-
Across-the-Curriculum requirement. Prerequisite: 320 or equivalent.

470-3 Chinese Literature in Translation. Reading and analysis of selected Chinese works, authors, themes or genres in English translation with attention to literary genres and thought from ancient to contemporary times. Students taking this course for graduate credit will do a critical aspect. No knowledge of Chinese is required.

490-1 to 6 Advanced Independent Study in Chinese. Directed individual study of some question, author, or theme of significance in the field of Chinese literature, language or culture. Special approval needed from the instructor.

Classics (CLAS)

No graduate program is offered through the classics section. Four-hundred-level courses in this section may be taken for graduate credit unless otherwise indicated in the course description. Courses numbered 488 are designed to help graduate students prepare for proficiency examination required by certain departments as evidence of competency in Latin. No prerequisite is stipulated. Students must register for these courses and are advised to take them as part of, not in addition to, their graduate program. Students will not receive graduate credit for courses numbered below 400.

415-3 to 9 (3 per topic) Advanced Reading in Greek. Reading and interpretation of works of Greek texts at an advanced level. Satisfies the COLA Writing Across the Curriculum requirement. Prerequisite: three years of Greek or consent of the instructor.

416-3 to 9 (3 per topic) Advanced Reading in Latin. Reading and interpretation of works of Latin texts at an advanced level. Satisfies the COLA Writing Across the Curriculum requirement. Prerequisite: three years of Latin or consent of instructor.

488-3 Latin as a Research Tool. Concentrated and individualized training in the recognition and interpretation of basic and complex grammatical structures and in the systematic acquisition of the principles of word formation for vocabulary expansion. Techniques for intensive and extensive readings and for translation of unedited texts in the student’s own field of study. Intended for graduate students. Undergraduates who wish to enroll are encouraged to consult with course instructor. With consent of student’s own department, and with a grade of B or A, satisfies graduate program requirements for foreign languages as research tool. Prerequisite: one year of Latin, or equivalent.

491-3 to 9 Classics Seminar. Intensive study of a select area of classics. Recent topics include Greek and Roman Religion, Socrates, and Homer. Capstone research course required for classics major and minors, though others are welcome. There are no formal prerequisites, but some knowledge of the ancient world will prove helpful (such as that provided by CLAS 230, 270, and 271). No knowledge of Latin or Greek required.

French (FR)

Courses numbered 488 are designed to help graduate students prepare for proficiency examination required by certain departments as evidence of competency in French. No prerequisite stipulated. Students must register for these courses and are advised to take them as part of, not in addition to, their graduate program. Students will not receive graduate credit for courses numbered below 400.

410-3 Advanced Language Study. Designed to improve language skills beyond the level of 320. Selected grammar review, intensive practice in effective use of the written and spoken language through translations and free compositions. This course satisfies the CoLA Writing-Across-the-Curriculum requirement. Prerequisite: FR 320b with a grade of C or better, or permission of instructor.

420-3 Introduction to French Literature and Cinema. This course will explore representative works in French from a variety of French and Francophone African authors and filmmakers. Students will be introduced to techniques of literary and filmic analysis through the reading of texts and the examination of films in French. FR 420 will be taught in French. Prerequisite: FR 320a with a passing grade or consent of instructor.

435-3 Living and Working in France. This course explores the French and Francophone business worlds from a variety of economic and cultural perspectives. Class work will focus on vocabulary, idioms, and expressions used in oral and written business communications. Readings on authentic cultural practices will provide real-world contexts for students preparing to live and work in a French-speaking country. Taught in French. Prerequisite: French 320A with a passing grade.

440-3 Literature of the Enlightenment. Study and discussion of the novel, theater, and philosophic writing of 18th century France as literature and as expressions of the Enlightenment. Major attention given to Montesquieu, Voltaire, Diderot, and Rousseau. Special approval needed from the instructor.
450-3 Literary Movements of the 19th Century. Romanticism, Realism, and Naturalism in poems, novels and theater plays followed by an examination of the reaction to these movements and of the influence of symbolism. Special approval needed from the instructor.

570-3 The French and Their History. Study of major French historical events from Vercingetorix to the French Revolution. Examination of the political, philosophical, artistic movements and historic figures that shaped contemporary France. Taught in French. Recommended before FR 471/571. Prerequisite FR 320B with passing grade or permission of instructor.

576-3 Francophone Literature. Representative readings of major Francophone writers from Europe, Canada, Africa and the Caribbean. Prerequisite: 330 or permission of instructor.

580-3 Masterpieces of French and Francophone Literatures. Appreciation and analysis of selected masterpieces in French and Francophone literatures with special attention given to required authors and works from the Master of Arts reading list.

599-1 to 6 Thesis. 601-1 per semester Continuing Enrollment. For those graduate students who have not finished their degree programs and who are in the process of working on their dissertation, thesis, or research paper. The student must have completed a minimum of 24 hours of dissertation research, or the minimum thesis, or research hours before being eligible to register for this course. Concurrent enrollment in any other course is not permitted. Graded S/U or DEF only.
German (GER)

No graduate program is offered through the German section. Four-hundred-level courses in this section may be taken for graduate credit unless otherwise indicated in the course description.

410-3 German for Writing Proficiency. This course teaches the advanced grammar, vocabulary, and stylistic principles students need to write expository prose, critical essays, business and personal correspondence in German. Through readings and discussions in German, it also expands vocabulary and speaking ability. The final exam in the course can be counted for the German writing proficiency examination. This course satisfies the CoLA Writing Across the Curriculum requirement. Prerequisite: 320b with a grade of B or the equivalent.

411-3 Linguistic Structure of Modern German. The descriptive study of phonology, grammatical structure, and vocabulary of modern German with consideration of its structural differences from English and application to teaching. Conducted in English. Prerequisite: at least two years of German.

413-3 Linguistic Variation and Cultural Diversity in the German-Speaking World. Gain intimate knowledge of the German-speaking world about linguistic and cultural variety and identity. Featured varieties include written and spoken German, standard vernacular, regional and urban dialects, youth and minority language, usage, and more. Varieties are explored in structural terms and examined in the social and cultural contexts in which they occur. Course is conducted in German. Prerequisite: GER 320A or consent of instructor.

435-3 Business German. An overview of German business, presented through lectures, readings and discussions. Coursework with textbook and supplementary materials will focus on the major aspects of German business. Exercises will include vocabulary building, listening and reading comprehension, oral and written summarization, role playing in typical situations, mock telephone conversations and business correspondence. Prerequisite: 320b with a grade of B or the equivalent.

460-3 German Theater: Literature on Stage. This course will explore developments in the German drama from the eighteenth century to the present, focusing on dramatic form and social, historical, and cultural contexts. Conducted in German. Prerequisite: 320a or consent of instructor.

465-3 Self and Society: First-person Narrative. This course will introduce beginning students to German literature written in first person. It serves as an introduction to the way the personal voice is constructed in texts, and students will develop their understanding of the German narrative tradition. We will collectively probe our notions of realism, believability, and truth as we read stories of self-conscious narrators. Conducted in German. Prerequisite: 320b with a grade of C or higher.

488-3 German as a Research Tool. Concentrated and individualized training in the recognition and interpretation of basic and complex grammatical structures and in the systematic acquisition of the principles of word formation for vocabulary expansion. Techniques for reading and for translation of unedited texts in the student's own field of study. Intended for graduate students. With consent of student's department, and with a grade of B or A, satisfies graduate program requirement for foreign language as a research tool.

490-1 to 6 (1 to 3) Independent Study in German. Project-study under supervision of German faculty. Amount of credit depends on scope of study. May be repeated as the topic varies, up to the maximum of six semester hours. Prerequisite: GER 320A or consent of instructor.

493-3 to 9 (3 per topic) Seminars in Special Topics in Literature and Language. Topics vary and are announced in advance; both students and faculty suggest ideas. May be repeated as the topic varies. Primarily for undergraduates. Special approval needed from the instructor.

590-3 to 9 (3 per topic) Independent Study on Special Topics in Literature and Language. May be repeated only if the topic varies, and with consent of department.

Japanese (JPN)

No graduate program in Japanese is offered through the Eastern Languages and Civilization section. Four-hundred-level courses in this section may be taken for graduate credit unless otherwise indicated in the course description.

410-3 The Linguistic Structure of Japanese. Inductive approach to the analysis of various aspects (such as phonology, morphology, syntax) of Japanese grammar with emphasis on syntactic structures within any of the current theoretical frameworks such as pragmatics, functionalism and formal linguistics. May include contrastive analysis between Japanese and English, and close examination of theories of comparative-historical linguistics of Japanese and Korean. This course satisfies the CoLA Writing-Across-the-Curriculum requirement. Special approval needed from instructor.

435-3 Business Japanese. An introduction to the language and culture of the Japanese business world and to the structure of the Japanese business economy. The emphasis will be on learning appropriate levels of formality and politeness in oral communication and on achieving... competency in the specialized language of business. This course satisfies the CoLA Writing-Across-the-Curriculum requirement. Prerequisite: 320A, B or equivalent.

490-1 to 6 Advanced Independent Study in Japanese. Directed individual study of some questions, author, or theme of significance in the field of Japanese literature, language or culture. Special approval needed from the instructor.

Spanish (SPAN)

411-3 Linguistic Structure of Spanish. (Same as Linguistics 414). Theory and practice in Spanish pronunciation and study of Spanish grammatical structure, in contrast to English, with application to teaching. Not for graduate credit in foreign language programs.

412-3 History of the Spanish Language. Survey of internal and external history, from Vulgar Latin to Modern Spanish. Not for graduate credit in foreign language programs.

414-3 Translation Techniques. A practical introduction to the field of professional translation, from and into Spanish. Prerequisite: 320b or equivalent.

420-3 Studies in Literature of the Middle Ages. Studies of the origins of Spanish literature emphasizing works such as the Cantar de Mío Cid, Libro de buen amor, and La Celestina. Prerequisite: 310 or consent of instructor.
