The Department of Political Science offers graduate work leading to M.A., M.P.A. and Ph.D. degrees. The department endeavors to accommodate the special and general interests of students through a broad curriculum, individualized programs, and varied teaching and research assistantships. The department takes a personal interest in its students throughout their period of enrollment and assists them in finding satisfying professional employment upon graduation. Graduates now hold academic appointments in 60 American universities and colleges and more than a dozen foreign institutions of higher education. Graduates are also employed in various governmental agencies at the national, state, and local level. The professional interests of the faculty range across all fields of political science, and have resulted in significant scholarly publications and presentations at professional meetings.

Provisions of this publication are supplemented by policies made explicit in the regulations and procedures of the graduate studies program of the Department of Political Science and made available to all graduate students.

Application Procedures

The Department of Political and Graduate School applications form one combined application that should be submitted electronically through the ApplyYourself system. The link to ApplyYourself is available at the Graduate School website. There is a supplemental application (Part Two), specific to the Department of Political Science that must be submitted along with the main online application. Separate forms are not required for application for financial assistance, except for Graduate School fellowships. Students will be accepted for graduate work in political science only upon approval by the department as well as the Graduate School. This program requires a nonrefundable $50.00 application fee; applicants may pay this fee by credit card through ApplyYourself or by personal check, cashier's check, or money order made out to SIU, and payable to a U.S. Bank sent directly to the Department of Political Science.

All applicants must submit all post-secondary education transcripts, three letters of recommendation from persons who can evaluate the applicant’s academic ability and a statement of purpose. Applicants for the M.A. and Ph.D. programs must also submit scores on the Graduate Record Examination (GRE) verbal and quantitative tests and an example of written work that demonstrates the applicant’s analytical and writing skills. Foreign students must have taken the test of English as a foreign language (TOEFL) and are expected to have a score of at least 600 (paper score) or 250 (computer score).

Applications and supporting materials for the M.A. and Ph.D. program that are submitted by January 1 will be given full consideration for admission and funding. Exceptional applications, however, will be considered until March 15. Applicants should contact the M.P.A. program office for the deadlines pertaining to the application term.

Master of Arts Degree Requirements

Admission. Applicants for the Master of Arts degree program are admitted only with the approval of the graduate studies committee of the department. The department imposes requirements for admission in addition to those of the Graduate School. The department will ordinarily accept as candidates for the Master of Arts degree only those applicants who (1) have graduated from an accredited four year college or university; (2) have completed four or more courses in social science, humanities, or related disciplines; (3) have a 2.7 (4-point scale) overall grade point average or, alternatively, have a 2.9 overall grade point average for the last two years of undergraduate work; and (4) have a 3.0 average in government or political science.

Retention. Retention is governed by the rules of the Graduate School. Students should avoid the accumulation of incomplete grades. No student with more than two incomplete grades can be awarded a graduate assistant appointment, and a student holding a graduate assistant appointment is subject to having the appointment terminated upon acquiring two or more incomplete grades.

Course Work. The director of graduate studies serves as advisor to each M.A. student until an advisory committee has been selected by the student with the approval of the director, normally no later than the middle of the student’s first semester in residence. The advisory committee must approve the student’s program. The student must earn a minimum of 30 semester hours of acceptable graduate credit to qualify for the Master of Arts degree. A maximum of 3 hours can be earned in 400-level courses. The student who completes the minimum of 30 semester hours of course work may devote no more than nine of those hours to courses taken outside of the department. Each candidate for the Master of Arts degree must complete 6 hours for research tools and methods requirements (POLS 500A and POLS 500B), a 1 hour pre-professional requirement (POLS 593) and 6 hours for two proseminars.

Research Paper: A Master of Arts degree will be awarded upon completion of a research paper and the course and hour requirements. The research paper is developed from a paper produced in a seminar or through independent readings/research with a faculty member. Students will select an advisor for the Master’s Research Paper (e.g., the person who taught the course or supervised the readings/research project). Students will enroll with this faculty member for 3 semester hours in POLS 591, Individual Research, for the completion of the research paper. This course can be taken concurrently with or after the research seminar. The selection of the advisor requires paperwork that must be filled with the Director of Graduate Studies. The research paper will then be submitted for evaluation to another faculty member selected in concurrence with the faculty advisor for the paper. In case of disagreement over the evaluation (pass/fail) of the paper, the graduate studies committee will appoint a third reader. The master’s research paper normally is 20 to 40 pages in length. In addition to the copy required by the Graduate School, one suitably bound copy must be deposited in the department library.

Exceptions. An exception from these rules must be justified in a petition approved and signed by the student’s committee members, submitted to the director of graduate studies and approved by the members of the graduate studies committee at a scheduled meeting.

Master of Public Administration Degree Requirements

mmpaprog@siu.edu

Admission. Students are admitted to either pre-service or in-service status. To be admitted as an in-service student, the student must have significant professional experience in a public or quasi-public agency. Significant professional experience can generally be defined as: at least one year of administrative full-time work experience. Students having less than one year of significant professional experience are admitted to pre-service status.

Applications for admission should be directed to the Director, Master of Public Administration Program, Department of Political Science. To be considered for admission, applicants must have: (1) graduated from an accredited four-year college or university and (2) received an overall grade point average of 2.7 (4.0 scale) or, alternatively, a 2.9 overall grade point average for the last two years of undergraduate work. The MPA program seeks applicants with a minimum of a 3.0 undergraduate GPA. In instances where a candidate’s promise is indicated by professional experience rather than undergraduate record, consideration will be given on an individual basis to admission. Retention is governed by the standards of the Graduate School. Also, students receiving two C grades in required courses will be dismissed from the program.

This program requires a nonrefundable $50.00 application fee that must be submitted with the application for Admissions to Graduate Study in Political Science. Applicants may pay this fee by credit card if applying electronically. Applicants submitting a paper application must pay by personal check, cashier’s check, or money order made out to SIU, and payable to a U.S. Bank.

A GRE score is required of all applicants with a grade point average below 3.0 and those wishing to be considered for a graduate assistantship or fellowship.
Degree Requirements. M.P.A. students complete a 43 semester hour program of study, as follows: (1) seven required courses, totaling 19 semester hours, (2) 15 semester hours of elective course work, (3) a research paper in public administration for which three semester hours are awarded, (4) an oral examination, and (5) an internship, for which six semester hours are earned. Of the 34 hours of graduate level course work, at least 19 semester hours must be taken in the Department of Political Science. Each of these requirements is described more fully below. In-service students receive an internship waiver reducing the total number of semester hours needed to graduate to 37.

Retention. All MPA students are required to maintain a minimum level of academic performance. Any student earning a C grade or below in more than one of the MPA required courses will be dismissed from the program. MPA students otherwise must conform to the standards set out in the MPA Student Handbook. Issues not addressed by the Handbook fall under retention policy provisions in Graduate School Catalog.

Prerequisites. Students lacking undergraduate preparation in public administration must complete POLS 340 during their first semester of study. Exceptions to this may be granted to in-service students, on a case-by-case basis. POLS 503B is a prerequisite to enrollment in POLS 544 and is recommended in-service students, on a case-by-case basis. POLS 503B is a prerequisite to enrollment in POLS 544 and is recommended prior to enrollment in either POLS 542 or POLS 557. POLS 540 can be taken only after at least three other core courses have been completed.

Required Coursework.

The following seven courses are required.

- POLS 503B-3 Research Methods for Public Administrators
- POLS 540-3 Seminar in Public Management
- POLS 542-3 Public Budgeting and Fiscal Management
- POLS 543-3 Human Resource Management
- POLS 544B-3 Program Analysis and Evaluation
- POLS 545-3 Organization Theory and Behavior
- POLS 594-1 Preprofessional Seminar in Public Administration
- POLS 596-3 Research Paper in Public Affairs
- POLS 595-6 Internship in Public Affairs

To facilitate the work of employed students, each of the required courses is offered in the evening at least once every three years. A substitution for one core course may be allowed if the substituted course is similar in content to the particular core course or if competence in the subject matter of the course is clearly evident.

M.P.A. students concentrating in aviation administration substitute POLS 557 (Public Financial Administration) for POLS 544B (Program Analysis and Evaluation).

Electives. Elective courses may be selected from the offerings of various departments across the University, as well as those of the Department of Political Science. The student and the faculty adviser consult in selecting courses best suited to the student's individual career goals. 400 level courses, of an introductory technical nature and other specialized courses especially relevant to the public administration profession may be taken with the consent of the MPA Director. Students may count no more than 6 hours of 400 level credit toward fulfillment of the MPA degree requirement.

The Research Paper. All students must register for POLS 596 and complete a research paper. The research paper is to be an examination of some issue or problem in public administration. It may be either theoretical or applied, or some combination of theoretical and applied concerns. Early preparation for the research project and related paper begins during the student’s first semester of study, and completion is normally a prerequisite for internship placement. The paper is written under the supervision of the student’s faculty committee.

The Oral Examination. After completion of course work and the research paper, an oral examination is scheduled and conducted by the student's faculty committee. The examination gives attention to course work as well as the methodology and findings of the research paper. After satisfactory performance in the oral examination, a copy of the approved research paper must be filed with the Graduate School and program director. Students who fail the examination are allowed a second examination after remedial work as recommended by the committee. Candidates who fail more than once are dropped from the program.

The Internship. Pre-service students must register for POLS 595 and serve an internship in a governmental agency, non-profit organization or quasi-governmental agency. The internship is usually for 4.5 months of full-time work or nine months of half-time work, and it provides a stipend as negotiated by representatives of the program and agency. The internship is normally scheduled to begin after all course work and the research report have been completed. In extraordinary circumstances, a pre-service student may substitute six semester hours of coursework for the internship if a request is approved by the MPA program.

MPA Aviation Administration Concentration

To be considered for admission, pre-service applicants will have graduated from an accredited four year college or university with a major in some aspect of aviation, and normally have either a grade point average of 2.7 (4.0 scale) or, alternatively, a 2.9 GPA for the last two undergraduate years. The MPA program seeks applicants with a minimum of a 3.0 undergraduate GPA. In-service applicants with strong professional experience may be admitted with grade point averages below these levels and with undergraduate majors outside the aviation field. Undergraduate course work and letters of recommendation will also be considered in admission decisions.

The required courses for aviation administration students are:

- POLS 503B Research Methods for Public Administrators
- POLS 540 Seminar in Public Management
- POLS 542 Public Budgeting and Fiscal Management
- POLS 543 Human Resource Management
- POLS 545 Organization Theory and Behavior
- POLS 557 Public Financial Administration
- POLS 594 Preprofessional Seminar in Public Administration
- POLS 551 Aviation Policy, Law and Regulation
- POLS 552 Advanced Airport Administration
- POLS 554 Aviation Planning
- POLS 555 International Aviation
The research paper and internship requirements are the same for aviation administration students as for all other MPA students. Aviation students take three hours of elective coursework.

Concurrent Degrees in Law and Public Administration

Students who have been admitted separately to the Southern Illinois University School of Law and the Master of Public Administration program may study concurrently for the Juris Doctor and M.P.A. degrees. Students interested in concurrent study should inform both programs before entering the second academic year of either program and will register as law students with a minor in public administration. Each program will maintain records and evaluate final degree requirements as if the student were enrolled in only one program.

Concurrent study students must complete a minimum of 81 semester hours of School of Law credits which meet all law area requirements, as well as all M.P.A. requirements to receive the J.D. degree. Students will not be permitted to take course work outside the prescribed law curriculum during the first year of law class work. Students may enroll for both law and graduate course work during subsequent years provided a minimum of 10 semester hours of law and 13 semester hours total are taken in any term which has law course enrollment.

Concurrent study students must complete a minimum of 37 semester hours of the usual 43 hour MPA distribution requirement in order to receive the master’s degree. A maximum of six semester hours of Law credits of a public affairs nature (for example administrative law, environmental law, labor law, natural resources law) may be applied to both J.D. and M.P.A. requirements if approved by the director of the M.P.A. program. All concurrent study students will complete either the M.P.A. internship experience and project, or the applied study project. Internships will normally be scheduled during the third or fourth year of concurrent study.

Ph.D./J.D. in Political Science and Law

Students who have been admitted separately to the Southern Illinois University School of Law and doctoral program in political science may study concurrently for the Juris Doctor and Doctor of Philosophy degrees. Students interested in concurrent study should inform both programs before entering the fourth semester of law school. Each program will maintain records and evaluate final degree requirements as if the student were enrolled in only one program.

Concurrent study students must complete a minimum of 81 semester hours of School of Law credits which meet all law area requirements, as well as all Ph.D. area requirements, to receive the J.D. degree. Students will not be permitted to take course work outside the prescribed law curriculum during the first year of law class work. Students may enroll for both law and graduate course work during subsequent years provided a minimum of 10 semester hours of law and 12 semester hours total are taken in any term which has law course enrollment.

Concurrent study students must complete the entire first-year law curriculum with a law grade point average of 2.5 before being eligible to register for any political science graduate courses; and must complete a minimum of 60 semester hours which meet the distribution requirements of the Ph.D. program, as well as all law area requirements, to receive the Ph.D. degree. A maximum of 9 semester hours of School of Law credits of a political science nature (for example administrative law, environmental law, labor law, natural resources law) may be applied to both J.D. and Ph.D. requirements if approved by the director of the Ph.D. program. All concurrent study students will complete a doctoral dissertation.

Doctor of Philosophy Degree Requirements

Admission. Applicants for the doctoral degree are admitted only with the approval of the Graduate Studies Committee of the department. Students are expected to have sufficient background in political science. Students without a Master’s degree will be admitted to the department’s Master program, and upon completion will be admitted to the doctoral program in accordance with the established rules of the department and Graduate School.

Retention. Retention is governed by the rules of the Graduate School. Students are expected to make reasonable progress toward a degree. Failure to make progress toward the degree will result in a student’s removal from the Ph.D. program.

Program of Study. The work of a Ph.D. student is directed toward admission to candidacy for the doctorate, for which the student must meet the residency requirement, must take 12 hours of research tools and methods course requirements, 2 hours of pre-professional course requirements (POLS 593 and POLS 598), take a minimum of 27 hours of coursework in addition to research tools and pre-professional course requirements, maintain a GPA of at least 3.5, and pass a preliminary (written and oral) examinations. Students must pass written preliminary examinations in two fields. The fields are: political theory; methodology; American government and politics; public law; public administration and policy analysis; international relations; and comparative politics.

The student must be in residence for at least 1 year (2 semesters in each of which the student completes at least nine hours or six hours if the student holds a graduate assistantship) after admission to the M.A. program and before Ph.D. preliminary examinations can be taken. The student’s coursework must be approved by the student’s advisory committee and the Graduate Studies Committee. The advisory committee is selected by the student. The advisory committee is composed of a chair, who is qualified to chair a dissertation in the department, and two other members of the department faculty. The members of the advisory committee must represent the student’s research and dissertation interests. The student’s coursework is expected to be approved during the student’s second semester in the program. The Director of Graduate Studies will determine the deadline and procedures for approval of a student’s coursework.

The student must complete all course requirements determined by the student’s advisory committee. This may include requirements such as pro-seminars, additional methods courses, or language study. A student must take at least two pro-seminars. Not more than nine hours of readings or individual research (POLS 590, 591, 592) may be counted toward the student’s program of study. Before enrolling in POLS 592 or POLS 591, the student is expected to have completed the appropriate pro-seminar for the area in which readings or individual research is to be done.
Not more than one 400-level course may be included as part of the student’s program of study. Not more than nine hours of coursework outside of the department may count toward the minimum requirement.

Research Tools and Methods. The Ph.D. is a research degree, and students must acquire knowledge of research tools and methods. POLS 500A, POLS 500B, POLS 500C and POLS 501 constitute the department’s general methodology course sequence. The minimum methodology requirement for M.A. students is POLS 500A and POLS 500B; for Ph.D. students the minimum is POLS 500A, 500B, 500C and 501 (or their equivalents, as determined by the Director of Graduate Studies in consultation with the methodology faculty and Graduate Studies Committee). Students’ Advisory Committees may require additional course work in methods and/or tools (e.g. statistics, foreign language) as appropriate to their substantive coursework, theses, and dissertations. Ph.D. students who wish to offer methods as an examination field must complete two additional methods courses chosen in consultation with the student’s advisory committee and approved by the Graduate Studies Committee.

Pre-professional Requirements. Students must complete two pre-professional courses, POLS 593 and POLS 598.

Accelerated Entry into the Ph.D. Degree Program. A student enrolled in the M.A. degree program may petition the graduate studies committee after two semesters in residence for waiver of the requirement of an M.A. degree as a prerequisite for admission to the doctoral program, and for direct entry to the Ph.D. degree program in accordance with the following conditions. First, the student must be certified by the advisory committee to be an outstanding graduate student. In so doing, the committee must consider a wide range of supporting evidence including but not restricted to GPA, GRE, M.A. degree tool requirement, and evaluative letters from all graduate instructors from whom the student has taken courses. Second, the student must present 1 graduate research paper of outstanding quality or a published article of appropriate character and quality. The petition accompanied by the advisory committee recommendation and the supporting evidence must be presented to the graduate studies committee which will make the final decision on the petition. If admitted, the student will proceed toward the Ph.D. degree in accordance with the established rules of the department and Graduate School.

Direct Entry into the Ph.D. Degree Program. Students with an MA degree may apply to be admitted directly into the Ph.D. program. They are required to fulfill all degree research tools and methods, pre-professional, and course work requirements as part of the Ph.D. degree work. Additional measures of progress may be required by the student’s advisory committee.

Program of Study. The work of a Ph.D. student is directed toward admission to candidacy for the doctorate, for which the student must meet the residency requirement, must take 12 hours of research tools and methods course requirements, 2 hours of pre-professional course requirements, take a minimum of 27 hours of coursework in addition to research tools and pre-professional course requirements, maintain a GPA of at least 3.5, and pass preliminary (written and oral) examinations. Students must pass written preliminary examination in two fields. The fields are: political theory; methodology; American government and politics; public law; public administration and policy analysis; international relations; and comparative politics.

The student must be in residence for at least 1 year (2 semesters in each of which the student completes at least nine hours or six hours if the student holds a graduate assistantship) after admission to the Ph.D. program before preliminary examinations can be taken.

The student’s coursework must be approved by the student’s advisory committee and the Graduate Studies Committee. The advisory committee is selected by the student. The advisory committee is composed of a chair, who is qualified to chair a dissertation in the department, and two other members of the department faculty. The members of the advisory committee must represent the student’s research and dissertation interests. The student’s coursework is expected to be approved during the student’s second semester in the program. The Director of Graduate Studies will determine the deadline and procedures for approval of a student’s coursework.

The student must complete all course requirements determined by the student’s advisory committee. This may include requirements such as pro-seminars, additional methods courses, or language study. A student must take at least two pro-seminars. Not more than nine hours of readings or individual research (POLS 590, 591, 592) may be counted toward the student’s program of study. Before enrolling in POLS 592 or POLS 591, the student is expected to have completed the appropriate pro-seminar for the area in which readings or individual research is to be done.

Not more than one 400-level course may be included as part of the student’s program of study. Not more than nine hours of coursework outside of the department may count toward the minimum requirement.

Research Tools and Methods. The Ph.D. is a research degree, and students must acquire knowledge of research tools and methods. POLS 500A, POLS 500B, POLS 500C and POLS 501 constitute the department’s general methodology course sequence. The minimum methodology requirement for M.A. students is POLS 500A and POLS 500B; for Ph.D. students the minimum is POLS 500A, 500B, 500C and 501 (or their equivalents, as determined by the Director of Graduate Studies in consultation with the methodology faculty and Graduate Studies Committee). Students’ Advisory Committees may require additional course work in methods and/or tools (e.g. statistics, foreign language) as appropriate to their substantive coursework, theses, and dissertations. Ph.D. students who wish to offer methods as an examination field must complete two additional methods courses chosen in consultation with the student’s advisory committee and approved by the Graduate Studies Committee.

Pre-professional Requirements: Students must complete two pre-professional courses, POLS 593 and POLS 598.

Preliminary Examinations. Before preliminary examinations can be scheduled a student must have completed all course work, have a grade point average of at least 3.5, and have had a preliminary examination committee approved by the director of graduate studies. Students may not take preliminary examinations if there are any incomplete grades on their records except by petition to the graduate studies committee.

The written preliminary examinations are to be completed within a period of ten days or two periods of ten days each in successive semesters; an oral examination follows within two weeks of the last written examination upon the approval of the examination committee. Students will submit either a research paper of a draft of a prospectus to committee members 10 days prior to the oral examination. A student who passes the written and oral examinations is advanced to candidacy for the Ph.D. degree; a student who does not pass the examinations may be permitted to retake them at a later date or be dropped from the degree program of the department, at the discretion of the advisory committee and the graduate studies committee.

Dissertation. A dissertation must be written under the direction of and with the approval of a five member committee, one of whom must be from outside the Department of Political Science. The membership of the dissertation committee will normally be different from that of the advisory committee. A dissertation prospectus must be approved by the members of the dissertation committee and filed with the director of graduate studies. Students must register for a minimum of 24 hours of dissertation credit POLS 600, and cannot register for dissertation credit until they have been admitted to candidacy or, with the approval of the advisory committee and the director of graduate studies, until the term during which preliminary examinations are scheduled.

An acceptable dissertation must be completed within five years after admission to candidacy, or the student will have to repeat preliminary examinations. Final copies of the dissertation should be submitted to the members of the dissertation committee no later than ten days before the scheduled oral examination. The success of a final oral examination devoted primarily to a defense of the dissertation and open to the public will complete the requirements for the Doctor of Philosophy degree. A final copy of the dissertation must be filed with the director of graduate studies.

Application of Rules and Exceptions. The department’s rules in force at the time of the student’s admission to the Ph.D. program will apply while the student is in the program unless (1) the student voluntarily selects a newer set of rules before graduation or (2) the time between admission to the Ph.D. program and passing the preliminary examinations exceeds five years. In the latter case, the student will automatically come under the rules in force at the beginning of the sixth year and every fifth year thereafter until the preliminary examinations are passed.

Requests for exceptions to any of the above requirements must be presented in a petition approved and signed by the members of the student’s committee, submitted to the director of graduate studies, and approved at a scheduled meeting of the graduate studies committee.

Cooperative Program with University of Illinois at Springfield

The Department of Political Science at SIU has an agreement with the political studies program at University of Illinois at Springfield (UIS) to facilitate the entry of UIS political studies students into the SIU political science Ph.D. degree program. SIU will accept appropriate UIS graduate credits to fulfill course work, methodology, and research tool requirements. UIS students can qualify for accelerated entry into the SIU doctoral program after two semesters of study at UIS with 24 semester hours completed, a 3.5 GPA, two proseminars, and written evaluations from course instructors. A number of UIS faculty are eligible to serve on graduate student examination and dissertation committees. SIU will accept up to 12 hours credit for course work, research projects, and internships completed under UIS faculty direction towards the SIU political science Ph.D. degree. Other course work, residency, and dissertation requirements of the SIU program must be met as described in other sections of this catalog. For more detailed information, ask the director of graduate studies, Department of Political Science, SIU.

Courses (POLS)

For more The Department of Political Science offers courses toward the Master of Arts degree and Ph.D. degree in political science and the Master of Public Administration.

403-3 Philosophy of Politics. (See PHIL 441.)

405-3 Democratic Theory. (Same as PHIL 405) An examination of various aspects of democratic thought, including the liberal tradition and its impact upon the United States. Fulfills the CoLA Writing-Across-the-Curriculum (WAC) requirement. Prerequisite: POLS 114.

406-3 American Political Thought. This course is an advanced seminar in American political thought. The course focuses on the funding ideals and practices of the American republic and how these ideals functioned in subsequent social movements, political struggles, and ideological conflicts in American political history. Fulfills the CoLA Writing-Across-the-Curriculum (WAC) requirement.

408-3 Formal Political Theory. This course is an introductory survey of formal modeling techniques that have been important in Political Science during the latter half of the 20th Century.
