

NATIVE- AMERICAN HERITAGE MONTH

2023

Our Stories, History & Culture

11/01 Kick off featuring Troy Poteete

Kick-off event features Troy Poteete, a founding member of the Trail of Tears Association, as keynote speaker.

Student Center Ballroom B- 6-8pm

11/08 Indigenous Talking Circle

"A safe space for participants to come together, ask questions about indigenous culture, and engage in meaningful dialogue regarding matters of equity, inclusion, and systemic change. Hosted by Maxbiya Washte Wiya, a member of the Nakoda tribe in Montana."

Student Center Mississippi Room- Noon - 1pm

11/09 Native American Band: Mozart Gabriel & Dach Martin

Mozart Gabriel is a Native American folk, indie, and alternative rock artist based out of Nashville TN, Barcelona, Spain and Taos Pueblo village in New Mexico.

Student Services Building Pavillion- 5-7pm
(Inclement Weather location TBD)

11/16 Reading Together Two Spirt Journey: The Autobiography of a Lesbian Ojibwa- Cree Elder

Join us for the first session of this reading journey to learn about the life, and lived experience of Ojibwa Cree Elder who shares a story of history, culture, resilience and self-discovery. Books are free for the first 20 attendees.

Student Services Building Room 170- Noon-1pm

For accommodations
Call Disability Support Services at 618/453-5714

SOUTHERN ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY
STUDENT MULTICULTURAL
RESOURCE CENTER

