SEPTEMBER 2019

DIRECTORS OF GRADUATE STUDIES WORKSHOP

We urge all Directors of Graduate Studies (DoGS) and their colleagues who assist graduate students with admissions, registration, paper submission, graduation and other university processes to attend one of the upcoming DoGS workshops on September 18 and 19. Employees who are new to their positions might especially benefit from attending. Graduate School employees will remind attendees of ongoing policies and procedures and inform them of any changes. We recommend that attendees read the 2019 Graduate School Manual prior to the workshop, and there will be time at the workshop for questions. This manual is designed to provide detailed information for faculty and staff dealing with Graduate School policies and procedures. The recently-updated Graduate School Manual can be accessed at <https://gradschool.siu.edu/manual/>
