Hello Graduate Students,

You are invited to join the final session of the 2020 Graduate School Professional Development Series. This session will be an online Zoom meeting to provide information about formatting and submitting a final paper (Research Paper, Thesis, or Dissertation) to the Graduate School.

Students at any point in their programs are welcome to join this session.

Not all programs require a final paper to be submitted to the Graduate School. If you are in doubt about your program requirements, check the Graduate Catalog https://gradschool.siu.edu/about-us/grad-catalog/ or check with your advisor.

If you are unable to join the session, you may access a video of a previous info session and the powerpoint slides by visiting https://gradschool.siu.edu/current-students/thesis-dissertation-researchpaper/etd-overview.php.

Visit https://gradschool.siu.edu/current-students/thesis-dissertation-researchpaper/ to find the Guidelines for formatting and submitting a final paper to the Graduate School.

The information about joining the May 13 session is provided below.
